General Coverage and Definition Rules

December 8, 2017

G.01 – General Rules

The Homeowners Policy Program provides property and liability coverages, using the forms and endorsements specified in this manual. This manual contains the rules and classifications governing the writing of the Homeowners Policy. The rules, rates, forms and endorsements of the Company for each coverage shall govern in all cases not specifically provided for in this manual.

The Kemper standard and preferred companies consists of the following companies/agencies:

Kemper General Agency
Kemper Personal Insurance General Agency
Kemper Independence Insurance Company
Trinity Universal Insurance Company
Unitrin Auto and Home Insurance Company
Unitrin Preferred Insurance Company
Unitrin Safeguard Insurance Company
Valley Property and Casualty Insurance Company

F – Medical Payments to Others	HO 00 03, HO 00 04, HO 00 06	$1,000

Unless otherwise stated, Coverage E limits apply on an "occurrence" basis; Coverage F limits apply on an "each person" basis.

Coverage A Dwelling Increased Limits

HO 00 06

The basic limit may be increased. The premium is developed based upon the additional limit of insurance.

Coverage B Other Structures Increased Limits

HO 00 03

The basic limit may be increased. The premium is developed based upon the additional limit of insurance.

Coverage C Personal Property Increased Limits

HO 00 03

The basic limit may be increased. The premium is developed based upon the additional limit of insurance.

Coverage D Loss of Use Increased Limit

December 8, 2017

HO 00 03, HO 00 04, HO 00 06

The basic limit may be increased. The premium is developed based upon the additional limit of insurance.

Coverage E Personal Liability - Animal Liability

HO 00 03, HO 00 04, HO 00 06

The limit of liability for liability arising out of direct or indirect contact with an animal that is owned by or in the care, custody or control of an insured shall be the lesser of Coverage E or $300,000.

Additional coverage limits are not available.

Coverage E Personal Liability - Unmanned Aircraft Including Drones and Model or Hobby

HO 00 03, HO 00 04, HO 00 06

The limit of liability for liability arising out of the ownership or operation of unmanned aircraft, including drones and model or hobby aircraft, not used or designed to carry people or cargo under Coverage E, or Coverage E and Coverage F combined, shall be limited to no more than $25,000.

Additional coverage limits are not available.

Mandatory Coverages

It is mandatory that insurance be written for all coverages provided under both Sections I and II of the Homeowners Policy.

Section II Coverage is not mandatory for a seasonal or secondary residence policy if the same Kemper standard and preferred companies insures the primary and seasonal or secondary residences.

December 8, 2017

G.03 – Dwelling Occupancy Types

Primary

HO 00 03, HO 00 04, HO 00 06

A primary residence is a residence occupied by the insured on a regular and primary basis. No more than one residence may be classified as primary at any given time.

Secondary

HO 00 03, HO 00 04, HO 00 06

A secondary residence is any residence not meeting the definition of Primary, Seasonal or Rented to Others. Homeowners coverage on a secondary residence shall be provided under a separate policy. Section II Coverage is not mandatory for the secondary residence when the Kemper standard and preferred companies insures both the primary and secondary residences.

- A credit shall apply to the secondary residence policy when Section II Coverage is provided under the primary residence policy and
- A charge for Other Insured Location Occupied by Insured is applied to the primary residence policy.

Seasonal

HO 00 03, HO 00 06

A seasonal residence is a residence which is continuously unoccupied for three or more consecutive months during any one year period. Homeowners coverage on a seasonal residence shall be provided under a separate policy. Section II Coverage is not mandatory for the seasonal residence when the Kemper standard and preferred companies insures both the primary and seasonal residences.

- A credit shall apply to the seasonal residence policy when Section II Coverage is provided under the primary residence policy and
- A charge for Other Insured Location Occupied by Insured is applied to the primary residence policy.

Rented to Others

HO 00 06

An individually owned unit within a multiunit structure that is regularly rented or held for rental to others shall be classified as Rented to Others.

December 8, 2017

G.04 – Protection Classification

The Protection Class listings in the Public Protection Classification manual apply to risks insured under Homeowners policies. The indicated Protection Class applies in a municipality or classified area where a single class of fire protection is available throughout.

Protection Class is determined by the Texas Department of Insurance, by community.

In a classified area where two or more classifications are shown (e.g. 6/6X), the classification is determined as follows:

Distance to Fire Station	Class
5 road miles or less with hydrant within 1,000 feet	First protection class (e.g. 6/6X, use Class 6)
5 road miles or less with hydrant beyond 1,000 feet	_X or _Y class (e.g. 6/6X, use Class 6X)
Over 5 road miles but within 10 road miles	10
All other properties	10

December 8, 2017

G.05 – Protective Devices

Approved and properly maintained installation of systems or items on the residence premises designed to protect against fire and theft must be properly maintained and in good working order. The Company must be notified of any changes, including removal, made to the system(s) and/or item(s).

These may include the following:

- Sprinkler (Partial, Full)
- Fire Alarm (Central, Direct, Local)
- Guarded Access (Guard on Duty, Limited, Self Enclosed)
- Theft Alarm (Central, Direct, Local)

December 8, 2017

G.06 – Construction Type Definitions

Frame - Exterior wall of wood or other combustible construction, including wood iron-clad, stucco on wood or plaster on combustible supports.

Masonry - Exterior walls constructed of masonry materials such as adobe, brick, concrete, gypsum block, hollow concrete block, stone, tile or similar materials and floors and roof of combustible construction (Disregarding floors resting directly on the ground).

Masonry Veneer - Exterior walls of combustible construction veneered with brick or stone.

Mixed (Masonry/Frame) - A combination of both frame and masonry or frame and masonry veneer (brick veneer and/or stone veneer) shall be classed and rated as frame when the exterior walls of frame construction (including gables) exceed 33 1/3% of the total exterior wall area; otherwise classed and rated as masonry.

Other - Any other construction type not listed above.

December 8, 2017

G.07 – Single and Separate Buildings Definition

The following shall be considered single buildings:

- All buildings or sections of buildings which are accessible through unprotected openings

The following shall be considered separate buildings:

- Buildings which are separated by space;
- Buildings or sections of buildings which are separated by a 6 inch reinforced concrete or an 8 inch masonry party wall which pierces or rises to the underside of the roof and which pierces or extends to the inner-side of the exterior wall; or
- Buildings or sections of buildings which are separated by a documented minimum two hour noncombustible wall which has been laboratory tested for independent structural integrity under fire conditions which pierces or rises to the underside of the roof and which pierces or extends to the inner-side of the exterior wall.

Accessibility between buildings with independent walls or through masonry party walls as described shall be protected by at least a Class A Fire Door installed in a masonry wall section.

December 8, 2017

G.08 – Loss History

A chargeable loss shall be defined as any loss within the experience period for which payment, or total loss amount, exceeds the applicable threshold of $0 excluding losses attributable solely to weather, appliance related water damage, medical payments or worker's compensation. The loss amount shall be determined after application of the insured's deductible. The experience period shall be the three years immediately preceding the new business effective date or preparation date of the renewal.

December 8, 2017

G.09 – Residence Held in Trust

A Homeowners Policy may be issued to an occupant of a one- or two- family dwelling or a condominium unit when legal title to the dwelling or unit is held in trust and:

- One of the occupants of the dwelling or condominium unit is the grantor/settler of the trust;
- The residence held in trust is used exclusively for residential purposes, except for permitted business occupancies; and
- No trustee of the trust is:
 - A partnership or joint venture;
 - A corporation;
 - A limited liability company;
 - An organization other than a partnership or joint venture, a corporation or a limited liability company; or
 - A licensed professional who provides ongoing professional services with respect to the profession for which that individual is licensed, in connection with the administration of the trust; however, this does not apply to an individual who is a relative of the grantor/settler of the trust.

December 8, 2017

G.10 – Townhouse or Row House

HO 00 03, HO 00 04, HO 00 06

Coverage may be provided for an eligible 1- or 2- family dwelling which is part of a townhouse or row house structure.

An eligible 2-family owner-occupied dwelling attached to a 1-family dwelling but not separated by a fire wall would be considered 3 individual family units within a fire division. Four 2-family dwellings not separated by a fire wall would be considered 8 individual family units.

December 8, 2017

G.11 – Deductibles

All Other Peril Deductibles

All policies are subject to a deductible that applies to loss from all Section I perils on an occurrence basis. A percentage or fixed dollar deductible may be used. The dollar amount for a percentage deductible is the percentage of the Coverage A. When a separate deductible amount applies to a certain peril, such as Windstorm or Hail, the amount and peril shall show separately on the policy Declarations.

Attach: All Peril Percentage Deductible Endorsement

Windstorm or Hail Deductibles

HO 00 03

In conjunction with the deductible applicable to All Other Section I perils, a percentage Windstorm or Hail deductible may be used. The dollar amount for a percentage deductible is the percentage of the Coverage A. A Windstorm or Hail deductible is available when the dollar amount selected exceeds the amount of the deductible applicable to All Other Section I perils. In the event of a Windstorm loss to covered property, the dollar amount is deducted from the total of the loss of all coverages. Separately enter the deductible amounts that apply to Windstorm or Hail and All Other Section I perils.

A Windstorm or Hail Deductible is not permitted when the following is present:

- Windstorm or Hail Exclusion Endorsement

Attach: Windstorm or Hail Percentage Deductible Endorsement

One Deductible

All Homeowner policies include a One Deductible loss clause provision, which protects the insured from paying more than one deductible as a result of a single event involving covered loss under Auto and Homeowner policies insured with the Kemper standard and preferred companies when more than one deductible would otherwise apply. The highest deductible will apply.

December 8, 2017

G.12 – Windstorm or Hail Exclusion

HO 00 03, HO 00 04, HO 00 06

The perils of Windstorm and Hail may be excluded for all coverages, including Coverage D – Loss of Use, if the property is eligible for such coverage from the state wind and hail association.

The Windstorm or Hail Exclusion is not permitted when any of the following are present:

- Windstorm or Hail Percentage Endorsement
- Windstorm or Hail Loss Settlement to Roof Surfaces Endorsement

Attach: Windstorm or Hail Exclusion Endorsement

December 8, 2017

Policy Servicing

December 8, 2017

P.01 – Standard Policy Procedures

Policy Period

The policy may be written for a period of one year.

Changes or Cancellations

It shall not be permissible to cancel any of the mandatory coverages in the policy unless the entire policy is cancelled.

If insurance is increased, cancelled or reduced, the additional or return premium shall be computed on a pro rata basis, subject to the minimum premium requirement.

Manual Premium Revision

A manual premium revision shall be made in accordance with the following procedures:

- The effective date of such revision shall be as announced.
- The revision shall apply to any policy or endorsement in the manner outlined in the announcement of the revision.
- Unless otherwise provided at the time of the announcement of the premium revision, the revision shall not affect in-force policy forms, endorsements or premiums, until the policy is renewed.

Premium for other coverages shall be in addition to the minimum annual premium.

In the event of a cancellation, premium shall be adjusted on a pro rata basis.

Minimum and Maximum Premium Rule

A minimum and maximum annual premium charge shall be applied per peril on the policy. Premium for other coverages shall be in addition to the minimum or maximum annual premium.

In the event of a cancellation, premium shall be adjusted on a pro rata basis.

Refer to rate pages for corresponding factors and perils to which this applies.

Whole Dollar Premium

Each premium shown on the policy and endorsements shall be rounded to the nearest whole dollar. A premium of fifty cents ($0.50) or more shall be rounded to the next higher whole dollar.

In the event of cancellation by the Company, the return premium may be carried to the next higher whole dollar.

December 8, 2017

P.02 – Additional Interest

HO 00 03, HO 00 04, HO 00 06

In addition to the mortgagee(s) shown in the Declarations or elsewhere in the policy, other persons or organizations may have an insurable interest in the residence premises. When coverage is not provided to such persons or organizations under the Additional Insured Endorsement, their interest in the residence premises may be acknowledged by naming them in this endorsement.

Such persons or organizations are entitled to receive notification if the policy is canceled or non-renewed by the Company.

No additional charge is made for use of this endorsement.

S.05 – Property Remediation for Escaped Liquid Fuel and Limited Lead and Escaped Liquid Fuel Liability Coverages

HO 00 03, HO 00 04, HO 00 06

Basic Limits

For no additional charge, the policy is endorsed to provide limited amounts of insurance for Property Remediation for Escaped Liquid Fuel and Limited Lead and Escaped Liquid Fuel Liability as follows:

Section I – Property Remediation for Escaped Liquid Fuel Coverage

$10,000 to pay for loss to covered real or personal property, owned by an insured, that is damaged by liquid fuel that escapes from a fuel system on the residence premises as defined in the coverage endorsements. Covered real property includes land, other than farm land, owned by an insured, on which a building or structure is located.

In addition to the primary residence identified in the policy Declarations, the defined term "residence premises" also includes other locations owned by an insured but only if such locations have a fuel system, are specifically insured under Section II of the policy and declared on the schedule in the aforementioned coverage endorsement. The address of other locations other than the primary residence insured on this endorsement must be listed on the policy Declarations. The other locations may be owner-occupied or rented to others.

This Property Remediation Coverage applies only for the policy period in which the insured first discovers or first learns of the escaped fuel, even if the escape began before that policy period.

Section II – Limited Lead and Escaped Liquid Fuel Liability Coverages

$50,000 to pay for damages because of bodily injury or property damage involving fuel that escapes from a fuel system or involving the contamination from or exposure to lead from any location insured under the policy.

Fuel System

"Fuel System" is defined in the coverage endorsement. It may include one or more fuel storage containers, tanks, or vessels with a total combined capacity of 100 or more U.S. gallons at any one location and any related equipment such as a furnace, a water heater, fittings and pipes connecting a furnace or water heater to the fuel storage tank, and filler pipes and flues connected to a fuel storage tank.

When the total combined storage capacity of liquid fuel at any insured location is less than 100 U.S. gallons, the:

December 8, 2017

- Property Remediation Coverage does not apply to that location; and
- Policy limits and provisions apply for Escaped Liquid Fuel Liability to that location.

Coverage is not available when Farmers Personal Liability Endorsement is present.

Limits of Liability

Higher limits of liability are not available.

For Property Remediation Coverage, the limit is the most coverage that shall be provided during the policy period regardless of the number of locations insured for Property Remediation Coverage, the number of escapes of liquid fuel from a fuel system an insured first discovers or learns of during the policy period, or the number of claims made.

For Limited Lead And Escaped Liquid Fuel Liability Coverage, the limit is an aggregate limit and is the most coverage that shall be provided during the policy period regardless of the number of persons injured, the number of persons whose property is damaged, the number of insureds, the number of locations insured under this policy or the number of bodily injury or property damage claims made.

Included with all homeowners policies.

December 8, 2017

R.02 – Acquisition Factor

The Acquisition Factor is used in connection with business transferred from a non-Kemper standard or preferred company into a Kemper standard and preferred companies³ rating program. Its purpose is to reduce policyholder disruption that may result from conversion into the Company rating program due to:

- Merger, acquisition or the obtaining of renewal rights; or
- Transfer of an agent's book of business to the Kemper standard and preferred companies

Applicable to coverages and endorsements for all units of exposure present on the policy when it is moved to the Company. Exception: Not applicable to premiums or fees which are remitted directly to a governmental organization.

Policies converted to the Kemper standard and preferred companies shall be provided coverages, including limits and deductibles, comparable to those provided by the non-Kemper standard and preferred company program. This rule shall be subject to those coverages filed with each state insurance department.

For the initial policy term the Acquisition Factor shall be developed by dividing the uncapped full term policy premium by the prior carrier's current term premium. The Acquisition Factor Table shall then determine the Acquisition Factor based upon the premium differential. (for Renewal Premium Capping States) For subsequent terms, the policy shall utilize renewal premium capping in order minimize disruption. (For non-Renewal Premium Capping States) By the third subsequent term, the policy shall transition to the indicated rate.

Refer to rate pages for corresponding factors and coverages to which this applies.

³ Kemper standard and preferred companies includes Unitrin Safeguard Insurance Company, Kemper Independence Insurance Company, Trinity Universal Insurance Company, Unitrin Auto and Home Insurance Company, Unitrin Preferred Insurance Company, and Valley Property and Casualty Insurance Company

R.05 – Billing Factor

The Billing Factor shall be applied to policies based upon premium payor type and whether the policy term premium is paid in full.

Paid in Full classification applies to policies based upon payment of the policy premium in full at new business or the first invoice of the renewal term. A policy term shall be considered ineligible for Paid in Full classification due to a returned payment or non-payment cancellation. If the first payment due date of the policy term has not passed, the addition or removal of the Paid in Full option shall apply as of the effective date of the New Business or Renewal Term. If the policy has already been paid in full for that term, a change in payment plan as it relates to rating shall apply to the subsequent renewal. If the policy was set to be Paid in Full and the payment plan is changed prior to paying in full by the first payment due date, the Paid in Full classification shall be removed. Once a policy has been paid in full, the payment plan shall be automatically updated to Paid in Full for subsequent renewals.

Mortgagee Billed classification shall be applied to policies when the first invoice of the term is initially issued to a mortgagee.

Refer to rate pages for corresponding factors and coverages to which this applies.

The Renewal Premium Capping Factor is deciphered through application of Expiring Term Rate Level and Renewal Term Rate Level to Renewal Term policy characteristics.

- Expiring and Renewal Term Rate Levels shall reflect solely the Adjusted Base Premium with Minimum/Maximum Premium Applied; Home Business, Blanket Valuable Items, Scheduled Personal Property, Farmers Personal Liability, Earthquake and all other Section I and Section II optional coverages shall not be included in the calculation of the Expiring and Renewal Term Rate Levels for purposes of Renewal Premium Capping Factor determination.
- Renewal Premium Capping Factor, Rate Level Adjustment Factor, Loss History Factors and coverages to which renewal premium capping does not apply shall not be included in calculation of Renewal Term Rate Level.
- Loss History Factors and coverages to which renewal premium capping does not apply shall not be included in calculation of Expiring Term Rate Level.
- Acquisition Factor shall be utilized in determination of the capping factor for the first Renewal Term in which capping applies.
- Policy Level Impact shall be determined by comparing the Renewal Term Rate Level to the Expiring Term Rate Level using the Renewal Term policy characteristics. The Renewal Premium Capping Level Table shall be used to determine whether the policy is eligible for capping, and if so, the applicable Renewal Premium Capping Level.
- $\text{Policy Level Impact} = \text{Policy Renewal Term Premium at Renewal Term Rates} / \text{Policy Renewal Term Premium at Expiring Term Rates} - 1$
- For policies eligible for Renewal Premium Capping, the Policy Renewal Premium Capping Level shall be used to determine the Policy Renewal Premium Capping Factor.
- $\text{Policy Renewal Premium Capping Factor} = \text{Policy Expiring Term Premium} \times (1 + \text{Policy Renewal Premium Capping Level}) / \text{Policy Renewal Term Premium}$

Renewal Premium Capping Factors shall not be re-calculated due to a policy change that is made after the renewal processing date.

December 8, 2017

L.01 – Personal Umbrella Liability Coverage

Personal Umbrella Liability (PUL) Coverage covers many personal (non-business) liability exposures up to $5,000,000 in increments of $1,000,000. For limits above $2,000,000, refer to company before binding. Excess liability insurance is provided by the PULC over the coverage provided by the required primary liability policies. In addition, umbrella (or dropdown) coverage is provided for the Named Insured's owned autos and the homes they occupy, subject to a $1000 retained limit, when the required primary insurance does not cover the loss and the loss would be covered by PULC. Umbrella (dropdown) coverage would also apply to many situations where minimum primary coverage, as shown below, is not required.

Personal Umbrella Liability Insurance may only be added to a policy when Kemper writes both the Personal Automobile and primary Homeowners policies for the named insured. A Package Discount is applicable.

Attach: Personal Umbrella Liability Coverage
